BRUNSWICK

Remember the Baccalaureate sermon by Rev. Knisley in the Disciple church Sunday evening May 23. Miss Genevieve Brintnall of Medina, will sing two selections.

On Tuesday evening at the M. E. church will be Commencement and Mr. Wenner of Ashabula, will be the speaker besides the parts the four graduates will render, who are: Helen Hogue, Mildred Indoe, Anna Laukhaut and Gladys Fuller. A five piece orchestra will furnish the music.

The Alumni will be held in town hall on Saturday evening May 29.

As Decoration falls on Sunday this year we will observe that day and Memorial together by Rev. Sims delivering the sermon at Disciple church on Sunday afternoon May 30 at 2 o'clock, after which being led by the band will march to the cemetery and decorate the soldiers graves. Everybody is invited to attend these services.

There will be no services in the morning next Sunday at Church of Christ, as the members have been invited to attend church in Medina.

Mable Denbie spent last week in Elyria at her brothers.

Mrs. Perry Freese visited over Sunday in Orwell with her daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Jordan.

Mrs. Bert Freese has returned to her new home in Valley City as they moved again last week into the Weidner brick house.

The M. E. Congregation will observe Pentecost day next Sunday when Rev. Knisley will baptize and receive members into the church.
